

PSC/IR 265: Civil War and International Systems

University of Rochester
Spring 2014
Tuesdays and Thursdays, 3:25-4:40
Meliora 203
Office Hours: Wednesdays, 2:15-4:15

Civil wars are now the most common form of armed combat in the world. However, as recent American forays in Afghanistan, Iraq, and Libya have illustrated, civil wars are rarely fought in isolation. Each side looks to foreign actors for military support or outright intervention. Meanwhile, international organizations like the United Nations mediate conflicts and initiate peacekeeping missions. As such, this course analyzes how the international system interacts with civil conflict.

Course Materials

Blackboard is difficult to work with. Thus, I will post all course materials on my website: wjspaniel.wordpress.com/pscir-265. Most importantly, this includes links to required readings, PDFs of lecture slides, and recorded videos of lectures.

Evaluation

Students will take three in-class exams and submit one problem set. The problem set is worth 10% of the final grade. Two midterms comprise 25% of the final grade. The final exam makes up the remaining 40% of the final grade.

After weighting each individual grade, final grades will be no worse than the following:

$93\% < x$	A
$90 < x \leq 93\%$	A-
$87\% < x \leq 90\%$	B+
$83\% < x \leq 87\%$	B
$80\% < x \leq 83\%$	B-
$77\% < x \leq 80\%$	C+
$73\% < x \leq 77\%$	C
$70\% < x \leq 73\%$	C-
$x \leq 70\%$	Non-passing grades
